

Dear Contest Director,

We promise to compete in the 2025 ICPC Asia Taiwan Online Programming Contest with honesty and integrity. During the contest, we shall comply with the following rules.

1. No machine-readable materials (e.g., source codes, templates, anything generated by artificial intelligence, etc.) are allowed. However, paper-based materials, such as textbooks, dictionaries, printed notes, etc., are allowed.
2. Contestants are allowed to contact only their teammates during the contest. Contestants shall not discuss with their coach and other teams.
3. Contestants shall access the internet only for downloading the problem description, submitting source codes, requesting problem clarification and checking the scoreboard. Any other type of internet access is prohibited.
4. Each team shall not use more than one computer to write programs during the contest. Contestant shall not use any other type of electronic devices, except extra monitors and printers.
5. All malicious actions interfering the contest are prohibited.
6. The coach must assign at least one person to monitor the team throughout the contest, or the team must record all screens used during the contest in their entirety and retain the recordings for future reference. Failure to comply will result in disqualification of the team.
