

Contestant Commitment

2026 ICPC Asia Taiwan Online Programming Contest

Dear Contest Director,

We promise to compete in the 2026 ICPC Asia Taiwan Online Programming Contest with honesty and integrity. During the contest, we shall comply with the following rules:

1. No machine-readable materials (e.g., source codes, templates, anything generated by artificial intelligence, etc.) are allowed. However, paper-based materials, such as textbooks, dictionaries, printed notes, etc., are allowed.
2. Contestants are allowed to contact only their teammates during the contest. Contestants shall not discuss with their coach and other teams.
3. Contestants shall access the internet only for downloading the problem description, submitting source codes, requesting problem clarification and checking the scoreboard. Any other type of internet access is prohibited.
4. Each team shall not use more than one computer to write programs during the contest. Contestants shall not use any other type of electronic devices, except extra monitors and printers.
5. All malicious actions interfering with the contest are prohibited.
6. The coach must assign at least one non-contestant person to monitor the contest for its entire duration, or the team must continuously record all screens used during the contest and retain the recordings for verification after the contest. Failure to comply will result in the team's disqualification.
